Find a copy from a citation
- For biomedical topics:
  1. Search for the article title in the Berkeley version of PubMed.
  2. In the result, select the UC-eLinks button to check for a copy of the article.
  3. If no online copy is available, check for a print version. Search oskicat.berkeley.edu for the journal title.

- For non-biomedical topics:
  Search scholar.google.com for the article title.

Search by topic or author
- Use article databases including:
  - PubMed
  - Embase
  - Google Scholar
  - Scopus

- Databases are available through guides.lib.berkeley.edu/az.php.

- In the search results, select the UC-eLinks button to check for a copy of the article.
